University of Michigan - University Housing Accommodation Request based on Religious Observance

University Housing is committed to providing a safe, inclusive and supportive experience for all students. We recognize student observance of their faith tradition may require consideration for placement in on-campus housing. We will work with students in an effort to meet their individual needs and will engage in an interactive process to determine reasonable accommodations. Accommodation requests must be submitted prior to the student receiving a fall semester housing assignment.

Submitting this request does not guarantee students will receive their preferred room type or campus neighborhood.

Living-Learning Communities

Michigan Learning Communities and Housing Theme Communities are located in various residence halls across campus. If you have applied and are accepted to a living-learning community, you will be placed in that community. Religiously observant students who are applying to a livinglearning community are strongly encouraged to complete this form, in the event admission is not offered.
